Descendants of Louis Augustus Frederic de St. Ferol

Generation No. 1

1. Louis Augustus Frederic de<sup>2</sup> St. Ferol (John Baptiste Athanais Frederic de<sup>1</sup>) was born August 20, 1794 in Lyons, France, and died Abt. 1841 in Pascagoula, MS. He married Emily Marie Delmas 1829 in Scranton (Pascagoula) MS, daughter of Valentine Delmas and Marie Krebs. She was born October 22, 1813 in Pascagoula, MS, and died June 25, 1894 in Pascagoula, MS.

Notes for Louis Augustus Frederic de St. Ferol:

Louis Augustus Frederic de St. Ferol, the son of Jean Baptiste Athanais Frederic de St. Ferol and Marie Antoninette Geret, was born August 28, 1794, at Lyons, France, on the river Rhone on the day of the siege of the Republicans. He and his mother were taken by friends when he was less than an hour old and hidden in a mine owned by the Frederics, and was not found for two years by his father who was a Royalist.

Louis was taken from school when he was 16, became a corporal under Napoleon; was decorated with the Legion of Honor when he was 18.

He came to America about 1815 after the defeat of Napoleon; first to New York, then to Marengo County, Alabama where he was assigned 160 acres in the Vine and Olive Colony, and then to Pascagoula, where he became the teacher for the Delmas family. His school became well known. He was the first Postmaster and a Notary Public. Living part of each year in New Orleans, he was a translator for the state legislature and was a editor and reporter for a local paper. As an engineer he helped lay out the first streets of Pascagoula.

He died in 1841 at the early age of forty-six, leaving a wife and five small children, three boys and two girls. He was buried at the Old Fort but the grave marker has disappeared.

Sarah P. Williams

Married- At the residence of J. W. Westfaul, in Jackson Co., Miss., by Hon. S. R. Thompson, Mr. Wash. Frederic St. Ferol and Miss Sara P. Williams both of Jackson County.

Local News from Democrat-Star, January 09, 1903;

Mr. W.E. Frederic has bought the Scranton Ice Factory from Mr. M. Summersgill. Consideration, $13,000 cash.

Obituary from Democrat-Star, October 16, 1903:

Death of Mr. W.E. Frederic de St. Ferol

Saturday morning last at 6 o'clock after a painful illness of two weeks, Mr. Washington Emile Frederic de St. Ferol died at his residence on Pascagoula river. He was afflicted with a cancer caused by a bite from a horse some fifteen years ago. Mr. Frederic was a native of this place and lived for many years in New Orleans, having been identified with the cotton brokerage and weighing business. He removed to Scranton and married Miss Sarah Williams, of Georgia, on August 10, 1882. He is survived by his wife and two sisters, Mrs. J.A. Donovan and Mrs. M.A. Krebs, all of this city. He was over 73 years of age at the time of his demise and was successful in his business career, having amassed a large estate. He was president of the Merchant and Marine Bank and a director of the Delmas Packing Company of Scranton.

St. Ferol Family

"Mr. Frederic, as he was generally known, was a member of one of the oldest families of old and new France. His mother, Miss Emily Delmas, was the first white child born on Round or Turtle Island. She was born there in 1812 when here parents were fleeing from the Indians, who made a descent upon Fort St. Louis de la Mobile. His father, L. A. Frederic de Saint Ferol, was of a noble family of Saint-Etienne, near Lyons, France."

The funeral was held from the Catholic church attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends, Rev. Father W. Ten Brink performing the solemn rites of the church. The pall bearers were; Messrs. Fritz D. Becht, Vincent Ros, A. G. Delmas, Isadore B. Dupont, George H. Huggins and I. P. Delmas. The interment was made in Krebs cemetery. Requiescat in pace.

Contest of Will of W. E. Frederic.

A petition has just been filed by Messrs. Denny & Denny and Miller & Doty, attorneys for Leaty F. Bazier, Charles R. Frederic and Joseph Frederic, children and grandchildren of the first wife of W. E. Frederic, for an issue devisavit vel non to test the will of W. E. Frederic as propounded by his widow Mrs. Sarah P. Frederic, in the chancery court of this county. By the will offered for probate the testator gives all his property to his last wife and her children equally, to be divided when the youngest child, about four years of age, should reach his majority. The grounds of contest may be briefly summed up as want of mental capacity and undue influence on the part of last wife. This property, worth probably a quarter of a million dollars, is thus tied up in the hands of Mrs. Frederic, the executrix, if this will is probated for sixteen or seventeen years. If the contestants succeed in the contest, however, those children of a former marriage will come in for an equal share and the property would doubtless then be sold for division. The contest will be an interesting one to the people of Scranton, as the property takes in some of the most important sites and buildings on the principal business blocks of our city, making a matter of much interest to the community, whether it will be put on the market or tied up for the next fifteen or twenty years.

Building a Sarcophagus.

Messrs. McDonald, March & Co., of Mobile, the well-known monumental designers and builders, commenced the construction of a sarcophagus in the Catholic cemetery at Pascagoula Saturday last for the remains of the late W.E. Frederic. The work is being executed by Mr. H.J. Stemerding. It will be a brick cemented vault to hold three caskets, over which will set a granite slab and tablet, surrounded by a stone fence. When completed the bodies of Mr. Frederic and two members of the family will be transferred from the Krebs cemetery to their final resting place. The new receptacle is of handsome design and workmanship and will cost about $1500.

Article from Pascagoula Chronicle, May 14, 1920;

Frederic Estate Has Been Divided

Large Part of the Business Section of Pascagoula involved in Final Settlement.

Deeds and agreement were filed for record in the office of the chancery clerk some days ago for partition among the heirs of the estate of the late W. E. Frederic. Under the terms of the will of Mr. Frederic the big estate was held intact until the youngest heir, Francis, attained his majority, which occurred some weeks ago. The several heirs thereupon worked out a plan whereby a division of the estate was effected without recourse to the courts.

The property in question takes in most of the business houses along Delmas avenue between Pascagoula street and the river, together with other business and residence property in the city, numerous vacant lots in Pascagoula, country real estate and property in New Orleans and elsewhere.

Below will be found the ownership as near as we are able to ascertain of the chief buildings and lots in the business section only.

Mrs. Sarah P. Frederic - The Bernstein store, lot between city hall and park, Rath store on corner opposite postoffice; also retains the home place on Jackson avenue.

Mrs. G. A. Pol - Blomberg jewelry store, Lewis insurance office, Torrecelli fruit stand, Hollis house and the residence on Railroad avenue.

S. H. Frederic - The S. D. Broun store, Peter Mene fruit stand, Moriet corner (opposite Lindinger corner,) residence on Pascagoula street, John Logan lot.

Mrs. F. E. Jane - The Voyadjis corner, Jane pool room, Jas. Glass and Geo. Dellus lots, south half of M. L. Pol fish house lot.

C. E. Frederic - Warfield theatre, Democrat-Star office, lot corner Delmas ave. and Frederic street.

W. E. Frederic - Butcher shop lot, next to and including Union Restaurant, Kihyet store, Roll's barber shop, west half of Scranton hotel, lot on Frederic street next to Southern Express office.

Mrs. L. A. Stephens - Rodrigue store building, lot corner Delmas avenue and St. Francis street, old Pascagoula Northern depot building, south half M. L. Pol fish house lot.

Mrs. H. M. Cox - Lot corner Delmas avenue and Carty street, Seymour pool room, east half of Scranton hotel.

H. A. Frederic - Hughes store building, Cash Bargain Store building, Modern Welding Co. building.

H. E. Frederic - Granlund store building, T. G. Hibbler office building, Dixie Pressing Club building and Yousko junk shop lot.

F. J. Frederic - J. K. Drug Co. building, lot corner Delmas and St. Ferol street, lot between A. & M. depot and Moriet building, lots fronting A. & M. railroad back of depot.

Notes for Mary Caroline Williams:

Listed in the 1851 New Orleans City Directory: Williams, Caroline/free woman of color/nurse & furnished rooms/ 101 Carondelet

After the death of Mary Caroline, it appears that W.E. Frederic and his children with Mary Caroline moved to the Pascagoula area. In the 1880 census Joseph is living with W.E. Frederic. The children that I have found birth records on were given the surname Williams, but Joseph is listed as Frederic in the census. Joseph was also known by the nickname "Fritz" according to court records. Josephine Williams (Frederic), in a strange twist, married the brother of W.E. Frederic's wife Sarah. Sarah's mother was a widow with two children, Robert and Sarah. Sarah's mother married J.W. Westfaul and Robert adopted the Westfaul name. They are buried in Machpelah Cemetery in Pascagoula as Robert and Josephine Westfaul. According to court records, Minnie Valentine died in Scranton (Pascagoula) in 1878. Leaty, Emile, and Joseph are buried in the Catholic Cemetery in Mobile, Alabama. Apparently Fritz and Josephine remained in good standing with W.E. because in a 1902 newspaper item about W.E. and Sarah's twentieth wedding anniversary, they are both listed as guest attending the party. Things fell apart the next year, when on his deathbed, W.E. Frederic signed a new will that made only Sarah and her ten children with W.E. the sole heirs of his estate.

In the 1904 lawsuit, where the children of Mary Caroline Williams challenged the will of W.E. Frederic, it was implied in the disposition of Mary Caroline's children, that Mary Caroline Williams was a former slave owned by W.E. Frederic. One of the question in a disposition asked that wasn't she a slave named Caroline owned by William Ellison of New Orleans and sold to W.E. Frederic shortly after the birth of Alice Leone. It asked if Mary and Williams were actually her real name or just made up. Her children in answer denied this and said she was a free person of color and the wife of W.E. Frederic. In the disposition they were asked to provide proof that Mary Caroline Williams was married to W.E. Frederic and that they were his children. The children were unable to prove that W.E. and Caroline were actually married, but they did provide a baptismal certificate with Mary Caroline and W.E. Frederic's name on it. They also provided several letters written to them from W.E. Frederic, Sarah Frederic, and Solomon H. Frederic, where the children of Mary Caroline Williams were referred to as sons, daughters, and sister. In another disposition from a witness who knew the family in New Orleans, she said that Mary Caroline, W.E., and the children lived as a family and she knew W.E. Frederic as "Mr. Williams."

St. Ferol Family

The passing of Mrs. W. E. Frederic, who died at her home at 342 Ford avenue, Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock, is mourned by hundreds of people in Pascagoula, where she had resided the greater part of her life and reared a large family who compose an important part of the city's citizenship. Mrs. Frederic had reached the age of 63 years, one month and fifteen days, Her death followed an illness she contracted Friday of last week, although she had not been in strong health for many months. She was a native of Macon, Ga., before her marriage to the late W. E. Frederic.

The funeral was held from her late home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, and was attended by a large gathering of relatives, friends and neighbors from many cities of this section. Rev. Father B. O'Reilly conducted the services at Our Lady of Victories Catholic church and the Greenwood cemetery, where a great mound of flowers was sent by loving friends as a tribute to her memory.

Mrs. Frederic is survived by nine children, Mesdames M. L. Pol, E. J. Jane, J. T. Stephens and P. W. Cox; Messrs. S. H. Frederic, C. E. Frederic, W. E. Frederic, H. E. Frederic and F. J. Frederic, all of Pascagoula. She also leaves her mother, Mrs. J. W. Westfaul of Pascagoula, and thirty-one children, besides other relatives.

Robbery Attempt Lands Pair In Hospital, Jail

An attempted hold up of Frederic's Tavern on Lincoln avenue last Saturday night by two armed men landed one in the Jackson County hospital with shotgun pellets in his face and chest and the other in the Gulfport jail.

George F. Scott was shot by W.E. Frederic during the attempted robbery and Rex York was arrested in Gulfport on Monday by police authorities in that city and was identified by witnesses as the second man.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Frederic were tied up and threatened with pistols during the altercation and Mrs. Frederic was said to have been struck about the head with a pistol butt.

According to police reports and the victims, the two men entered the tavern late Saturday night and drank several bottles of beer. When Mr. Frederic left the building to go to a pool room which he owns next door, the men were said to have drawn guns on Mrs. Frederic.

They covered Mr. Frederic upon his return and took some money from his pocket, he said, before tying both of them up with adhesive tape and strips of cloth. Mrs. Frederic escaped her bonds and ran from the building calling for help, Mr. Frederic said.

The manager of the pool room ran into the tavern and was threatened by the bandits but Mr. Frederic seized an opportunity to grab his shotgun and chased the men from the building. After shooting Scott, he ran out of ammunition and York escaped while he sought more shells, he said.

York is held in the Gulfport jail and Scott will be removed there upon his release from the hospital, Police Chief J. E. Shirley said. Both have been charged with armed robbery.

MRS. JOSEPHINE A. DONOVAN.

One of the oldest residents and landmarks of Pascagoula died last Saturday, in the person of Mrs. Josephine Antionette Donovan, whose death occurred at 12:50 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Loughridge, in Ker street.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the Church of Our Lady of Victories, being conducted by Rev. Father B. O'Reilly, who paid a beautiful tribute to the life and character of the deceased.

Mrs. Donovan was born on June 23, 1836, being therefore over 80 years of age. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Frederic de St. Ferol, coming here from New Orleans 52 years ago, and has resided here ever since. She leaves only one sister, Mrs. Amanda Krebs, of this city, and three daughters, Mesdames Walter Gautier, R. J. Loughridge and Cecilia A. Saucier, besides ten grand children and 6 great grand children.

Mrs. Donovan was a devout member of the Catholic Church, and was for many years identified with the social and religious life of this city.

Notes for James A. Donovan:

Following the Battle of Shiloh, the Crescent Regiment fell back to Corinth. During the next two months the regiment "was on almost daily scouting or picket expeditions and skirmishes." Typhoid fever and other diseases swept through the Confederate camps at Corinth, and James Donovan was one of the men who became ill. He was sent to a hospital at Holly Springs, Mississippi, where he died of typhoid fever on May 10, 1862.

NEGRO PAYS WITH LIFE FOR ROBBERY

Pascagoula, March 18. - The first legal hanging in Jackson county since July, 1890, took place in the Jackson county jail, when Samuel Williams, 23-year old Brewton, Ala., negro was executed. He was proclaimed dead at 7:57 a. m., just 12 minutes after the trap was sprung.

Williams was convicted of robbery with firearms and his sentence affirmed by the supreme court. He was charged with entering five Pascagoula homes on the night of August 16, 1936 and with slugging 79-year old Mrs. Fannie Loughridge.

Claiming the negro was insane, some effort was put forward, but four physicians examined the negro and reported to the sheriff that he was sane. Just before the negro was hanged he admitted that he was "acting" insane, according to witnesses at the execution.

The last legal hanging in Jackson county was in 1890, when Harry Dudley, Moss Point negro, was hanged for the death of Harry Flagg, a sailor, in a fight.

Mrs. Mary Amanda Krebs died at her home at 108 River Front in this city on Tuesday, July 3, 1928, at 12:20 o'clock p. m. Her funeral took place Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock from the Catholic church. Rev. Father O'Reilly officiating, interment in the Krebs cemetery.

Mrs. Krebs was born in Pascagoula, 89 years ago last September, and was therefore, at the time of her death, the oldest person living in Pascagoula, both as to age and as to the number of years residence here, having resided in this city her days. She was a sister of the late W. E. Frederic, and was therefore connected with three of the best families in the city, the Frederic, Krebs and Delmas families.

Of late years she has been confined to her home by illness and the infirmities of age, but before that time led an active life and was identified with much of the earlier history of the community. She had a large circle of friends and many relatives among the three families with which she was connected.

She had no living children, but is survived by three grand children, Mrs. E. J. Krebs and Messrs. Frederic and Wilhelm Sward of this city, four great grand children and a host of nephews, nieces and other relatives, to whom sympathies are extended in the passing of this good woman.

Mrs. M. L. Pol Dies Three Weeks After Husband's Death

Mrs. Gertrude Frederic Pol, a member of one of Pascagoula's oldest families, died suddenly at her residence Wednesday shortly before noon of a heart attack. She was 66 years old.

She was the widow of Miguel Leon Pol who died less than a month ago, on June 13. Mrs. Pol suffered a severe attack the day after her husband's death but although she had been ill since that time her death came as a shock to members of her family.

A native of Pascagoula, Mrs. Pol was the daughter of W. E. and Sarah William Frederic, both natives of Jackson County. She attended the Academy of Visitation in Mobile. Mrs. Pol was an active member of Our Lady of Victories church and was a member of the Sodality and of the Altar Society.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday, today, at 9 a. m. at Fails Funeral Home chapel in Pascagoula and at 9:15 a. m. at Our Lady of Victories church with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. P. J. Carey officiating. Interment will be in Machpelah cemetery. Pall bearers will be D. E. Frederic, Pol Frederic, Vernon Frederic, Vincent Cox, Miguel Pol and A. I. Valverde.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mose Blanchard of Pascagoula; a granddaughter, Mrs. C. R. Furr of Salem, Mass.; three sisters, Mesdames E. J. Jane, Sr., P. W. Cox and Lillie Smith of Pascagoula; and four brothers, S. H., W. E. and Francis Frederic of Pascagoula, and Henry Frederic of New Orleans.

Sol H. Frederic Has Four Sons Serving Country

Sol H. Frederic of Pascagoula has four sons each of whom is in the naval branch of the service. Lieut. (j.g.) G. J. Frederic is a member of the Medical Corps of the United States Naval Reserve. He enlisted about three years ago and has completed his internship at the Naval Hospital in New Orleans following his graduation from the Medical College of the University of Louisiana. He is now on assignment in the Atlantic.

Louis A. Frederic, seaman first class, in the US Naval Reserve has been in the Naval Reserve since April, 1942, and has seen 23 months of service in the Southwest Pacific where he was in six major engagements. In addition to his battle stars and theater of operations ribbon he is entitled to wear the Good Conduct Medal.

Like his brother, Kermit X. Frederic has been through six major campaigns, and also has been awarded the Good Conduct Medal in addition to stars and emblems. He followed his brother in the Navy, enlisting in May, 1942, and has the rating of electrician's mate first class. He saw 22 months of service in the Southwest Pacific. Kermit was recently married while home on a 30-day leave and during his honeymoon brought his bride for a visit with his parents, before again reporting for duty.

Veron H. Frederic cast his lot with the United States Merchant Marine and is now training at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Notes for Carlos Emile Valentine Frederic:
Obituary, Chronicle-Star, October 28, 1932;

Death of Carlos E. Frederic

Mr. Carlos E. Frederic, aged 44 years, a native and life long resident of Pascagoula, died at his home on Buena Vista street Monday morning at 11:45 o'clock, after an illness of several months. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at nine-thirty o'clock, with a requiem mass at the Catholic Church of Our Lady of Victories, Rev. Father Hunter saying the mass. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, a large number of friends following the remains to the grave. The following were the pallbearers: V. P. DeJean, Allie Browne, Willie Spratley, Lee Beckham, Henry Tereson and J. H. Warden.

Mr. Frederic was the son of the late W. E. Frederic, and was born in Pascagoula on July 30, 1888. He attended Spring Hill College, graduating from that institution in 1909. He was a devout Catholic and member of the Knights of Columbus.

Deceased is survived by his widow, who was Miss Mildred Ladnier of this city, and one son about twelve years old. He is also survived by a great grandmother, Mrs. Mary Westfaul, and four brothers and four sisters, as follows: Mrs. G. A. Pol, Mrs. E. J. Jane, Sol H. Frederic, W. E. Frederic, Mrs. Lillie Stephens, Mrs. P. W. Cox, Henry E. Frederic and Francis J. Frederic.

Carlos Frederic was a quiet, unassuming man, loyal to his family, his church and his friends, a good citizen, and a man well thought of by the entire community. He leaves, besides his bereaved relatives, a host of friends

Marriage Notes for Carlos Frederic and Mildred Ladnier:
Wedding Announcement, The Democrat-Star, January 9, 1914;

Ladnier-Frederic

One of the prettiest weddings of the younger society set of this city, was that of Miss Mildred Ladnier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ladnier, and Mr. Carlos E. Frederic, son of Mrs. W. E. Frederic, which pleasant event took place on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, near the Beach, in the presence of the families of the contracting parties and a few friends. The parlor was beautifully decorated with intertwining vines of lebanon and white camelias. As the bride came into the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, Miss Bertha Grandid, of Mobile, played the "Wedding March," and during the ceremony rendered "Meditation". Miss Ladnier, who is one of Pascagoula's most beautiful young ladies, was entrancing in her wedding gown of heavy azure silk, crepe de chine trimmed with Brussels net and point du Paris lace, and carried a handsome bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Norma Reinhardt, who is one of New Orleans most attractive young ladies, was attired in a beautiful dress of white silk mufie, embroidered with pink carnations over satin, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Being met at the attractive arch of trailing vines and pure white camelias by the groom, with his brother, Mr. Hermes Frederic, as best man, the solemn ceremony of the Catholic church was read in a most impressive manner by Rev. Father B. O'Reilly.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ladnier, and by her attractive personality and charming ways, has endeared herself to a large circle of friends.

Mr. Carlos E. Frederic, the groom, is a young man of sterling qualities, and stands high in the esteem of the public, and comes from one of the oldest families of the county. He is a valued employee of the Gulf Coast Furniture Company.

After the ceremony a reception was held, and many were the congratulations showered upon the happy couple. During the reception an abundance of refreshments, consisting of punch and cake and other good things were served the guest.

The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful, attesting to the very high esteem in which the young couple are held.

The happy pair left on the evening train for New Orleans and other points for a brief wedding trip, and on their return will be at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs. W.E. Frederic on Jackson avenue.

The Democrat-Star joins with congratulations and wishes for them a large share of happiness and prosperity and that they will enjoy a full fruition of their hopes and ambitions.

The out of town guest were; Mrs. E. J. Reinhardt and daughter, Miss Norma Reinhardt of New Orleans, Misses Loretta and Bertha Grandid of Mobile.

Child of Carlos Frederic and Mildred Ladnier is:

The Chronicle-Star, December 28, 1923

Wednesday evening, the saying "Christmas comes but once a year, so let's enjoy it while here" was truly realized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Frederic on Jackson avenue, when Santa Claus made his annual visit. Amid laughter and joy "Santa" entered the spacious parlor of the Frederic residence which was beautifully decorated in holly and mistletoe, while a large Christmas tree adorned the center of the room, illuminated with tiny electric lights added much to the Christmas spirit. Those who enjoyed this unique affair were: Great grandmother Westphal, Grandma Terreson, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pol and daughter, Louise, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Frederic and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jane and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Frederic and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Frederic, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stephens and children, Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Cox and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Frederic and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Frederic, Mr. Frances Frederic. There were also several invited guests including Messrs. Henry, Robert and D. Terreson, Naldo Saucier, Albert Rice, Joseph Blackwell, James Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Warden, Miss Mamie Ferrer, and Mrs. Ethel Boutwell. After Santa had distributed his numerous gifts, he left for his home in the north, leaving the children enjoying their gifts, oranges, candy and cakes.

CITY SHOCKED BY DEATH OF MR. HERMES A. FREDERIC.

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogy Dept.
St. Ferol Family

Pascagoula was shocked and grieved last Saturday morning by the sudden death of Mr. Hermes A. Frederic, member of one of Pascagoula's largest and most prominent families, who died at his home in Market street at 8 o'clock from an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Frederic had not been well and had remained in his bed longer than was his custom. His wife found him in a stupor, and went to summon a physician, but he died before medical aid could be administered.

The funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the residence of his sister, Mrs. M. L. Pol, in Jackson avenue, with services at Our Lady of Victories Catholic church and Rev. Father B. O'Reilly officiating. One of the largest crowds ever to attend a funeral in this city gathered at the home and church, and later at the Catholic cemetery where interment was made under the beautiful ritual of the Elks lodge, members of Pascagoula Lodge attending in a body and carrying out their ritualistic work.

Mr. Frederic was 29 years, 10 months and 26 days old. He was married, and is survived by his wife and five small children, besides his mother, grandmother, five brothers, four sisters and a large number of other relatives. For many years he had been a member of the Elks Lodge and Pascagoula Central Fire Company, taking a great interest in the activities of these organizations and always ready to do more than his part in promoting plans for civic welfare.

Members of his immediate family, besides his wife and children, are his grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Westphal mother, Mrs. S. P. Frederic; sisters, Mrs. M. L. Pol, Mrs. E. J. Jane, Mrs. J.T. Stephens and Mrs P. W. Cox, all of Pascagoula; Mr. S. H. Frederic, C. E. Frederic, W. E. Frederic and F. J. Frederic, all of Pascagoula, and Mr. H. E. Frederic of Bogalusa, La. To these and to the other relatives and large number friends the Chronicle-Star extends deepest sympathy.

DEATH OF MRS WALTER GAUTIER

Mrs. Marie Emily Gautier, wife of Walter Gautier, died at her home in Gautier on Friday, August 18, 1939, at 1:20 in the morning, her death being sudden, caused by a heart stroke.

The funeral was held on Saturday, August 19, from late home of deceased, proceeding to the Church of Our Lady of Victories in Pascagoula, where a requiem mass was celebrated by Father Chas. Hunter, former pastor of the church here, but now connected with St. Mary of the Pines at Chatawa, Miss. He was assisted by Father J. K. McKee of Pascagoula, and Father Catania of Moss Point. The large church auditorium was filled with relatives and friends of deceased, many of them from a distance, attesting the love and esteem in which this venerable lady was held.

Father Hunter made a touching talk on the life and character of deceased, referring especially in the fact that only a few short months ago she and her devoted husband had celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage.

Interment was in the family burying ground at Gautier, the following being the pall bearers: Morton Vaughan, Paul Vaughan, Quin Gautier, Bobbie Gautier, James Lester Clark, Donovan Gautier, Douglas Hague and Hermes Hague, all grandsons of deceased. A long line of cars carried many friends and relatives from the old Gautier home at West Side to the church and then back to the Gautier cemetery, where the remains were tenderly interred, a large bank of beautiful and fragrant flowers making bright the last earthly resting place of the dead.

Mrs. Gautier's maiden name was Marie Emily Donovan. She was born in New Orleans on February 22, 1859, the daughter of James D. and Josephine Donovan, being therefore, 80 years, 5 months and 27 days of age. She was married in Pascagoula on January 6, 1879, to Walter Gautier, who survives her, as do six daughters and three sons, as follows James D. Gautier of Kreole, Miss., and Henry W. Gautier and Hermes Gautier, both of Pascagoula, Mrs. John R. Ray of New Orleans, Mrs. George B. Hague of Pascagoula, Mrs. Paul T. Vaughan and Mrs. Lester C. Winterton of Gautier, Mrs. Harry B. Clark of Peoria, Ill. and Mrs. Charles R. Clark of Jackson, Miss, one sister, Mrs. R J Loughridge, of Pascagoula. In addition, there are surviving twenty-five grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and a large number of other relatives.

Mrs. Gautier was a most lovely lady filling a niche in the circle of her friends and relatives that cannot be filled. Up to the day before her death she was active, visiting hearts every day some of the loved ones in Pascagoula, and her death came as a great shock to all who knew her. She was a devout member of the Catholic church, and zealous and punctual in the performance of her church duties.

Deceased had lived the past sixty years in the home in which she was taken as a bride when only twenty years of age. She and the husband of her youth had spent many happy years in the old house, the anniversary wedding celebrations of the past several years always attracting large numbers of friends and well-wishers to honor to this old couple who had religiously observed their wedding vows for so many years. The old home had been enlarged from time to time to accomodate the growing family.

80 MILESTONES OF ACTIVE LIFE

Walter Gautier, Respected Citizen Celebrates 80th Birthday and 55 Years Married.

A family reunion and reception was held Saturday afternoon, January 6th, from 2 to 5 at the family home in Gautier in honor of the 80th birthday anniversary of Mr. W. W. Gautier, this also being the 55th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gautier.

The beautiful home furnished a delightful setting for the occasion. The reception suite was decorated through with pink and white japonica and pink candles, and a handsome lace cloth covered the table which was lighted by tall pink candles. A beautiful white cake with "80" in pink candles centered the table.

The cutting of the King's cake, an age-old custom of the carnival festivities, was a unique feature of the birthday party. Mrs. George Hague drew the piece of cake containing the small doll King. The one who is lucky enough to draw the King must entertain at the next party.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mrs. John Ray of New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. George Hague, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Hermes Gautier, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gautier, Mrs. Emma Johnson, Mrs. Julia Carty, Mrs. Cecelia Saucier, Mrs. Fannie Loughridge, Mrs. Eve Pelham, Miss Emily Vaughn, Mrs. John O'Donohoe, Miss Mina O'Donohoe and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Winterton.

Later in the evening a number of friends called at the Gautier home to congratulate Mr. Gautier on passing his eightieth milestone, and also to congratulate him and Mrs. Gautier on rounding out fifty-five years of happy married life.

Walter Gautier and Miss Mary E. Donovan were married in the little Catholic church at East Pascagoula, since changed to South Pascagoula and afterwards merged with Scranton into what is now the city of Pascagoula. The little church stood on the corner of Washington avenue and Buena Vista street, the site of the present Beach school. The building was burned a few months afterward and in later years rebuilt on the site of the present Church of Our Lady of Victories. After a brief reception at the Donovan home on River Front near the foot of Delmas avenue, the short but all-important wedding trip was made to Gautier, in a little boat named "Knapp," across the bay and around by Bayou Chemise, to West Pascagoula, a tortuous trip of about seven miles. This trip ended at Gautier, where Mr. Gautier had built for his bride a new home and in which they have lived the fifty-five years since that date January 6, 1879.

Obituary - The Chronicle-Star, January 03, 1936;

Mrs. Cecilia A. Saucier, aged 73 years and 3 months, died at her home at 315 Carty street, on Sunday, the 29th day of December, 1935, at 8:15 o'clock p.m. Her death was quite sudden. She suffered a stroke of paralysis that afternoon at one o'clock, from which she did not rally.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon from the home of Mrs. F. T. Loughridge, sister of the deceased, proceeding to the Catholic Church of Our Lady of Victories, where the service was read by Father J. E. McKee. Interment was in the old Krebs cemetery on Krebs Lake, the pall bearers being, Henry W. Gautier, James Gautier, Hermes F. Gautier, Odus Lynd, George Hague and E. E. Krebs.

Mrs. Saucier was born in New Orleans, but lived almost her entire life in Pascagoula. She was educated in the common schools of her earlier days and attended a convent at Bay St. Louis. She was born Cecilia Donovan, and married early in life to the late Wallace Saucier, who preceeded her to the grave a number of years. She is survived by one son, Frances Saucier of Pascagoula, and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Gautier of Gautier, and Mrs. Fannie J. Loughridge of Pascagoula, and numerous other relatives.

Deceased was a devout member of the Catholic church and was a member of the Altar Society of her church. She was given to works of charity and kindness and will be missed by a large circle of friends, who extend their sympathies to the bereaved son and sisters.

She married Charles A. Sward. He was born June 1867.

Notes for Cora Josephine Krebs:

From "WPA for Mississippi Historical Data Jackson County", 1936-1938;

MRS FREDERIC SWORD, nee CORA KREBS, daughter of Aristide and Amanda Frederic Krebs, was born in East Pascagoula in 1857, and died in 1915. Educated in a convent at Bay St. Louis, she displayed great talent as an artist, and received special training from Mrs. Miller, who was educated in Paris, France, and had a studio in Pascagoula. Her chief works were: "Fishing Village," "A Pastoral Home at Eventide," "Old Cathedral," "Water Scene," midwinter snow scenes, woods, and streams, "Fishing Boat on Comming Bayou," and "Old Rigged Sailing Vessel." These paintings hang in the home of her son, William Sword, who lives in the old Frederic home in Pascagoula. Others are in the home of Mrs. Tack Krebs, Orange Street, Pascagoula. The portrait of Aristide Krebs, a Confederate Army Officer, painted by J. R. Herring in 1867, is also in the possession of Mrs. Tack Krebs (Cecile Sword), his granddaughter.

Obituary - The Democrat-Star, March 12, 1915;

Death of Mrs. C. A. Sward.

The community was shocked to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. C. A. Sward, nee Cora Josephine Krebs, which occurred in Palestine, Texas, Friday, February 26, 1915, at 6:30 p. m., of pneumonia. The remains were brought to this city, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Cecelia Scott. She was taken from the train to the old home at the foot of Delmas Avenue, from thence to the Church of Our Lady of Victories, and was interred in the Krebs Cemetery on the Lake, Rev. Father B. O'Reilly officiating. Mrs. Sward was the daughter of Mrs. Amanda Krebs of this city and was 48 years and 7 months of age at her death. She is survived by a husband, mother and several children, besides numerous other relatives.

"Louise Pol" Makes Her Maiden Trip.

The new snapper boat, "Louise Pol", which has been under construction at Mr. M. Pol's fish house is completed in every detail and started on her maiden trip to the snapper banks Wednesday with Capt. James R. Clark as master. Her trial trip both with the sail and engine was highly satisfactory to the owner and to the builder. She is a pretty model and good sea craft and no doubt will come up to the expectations of the draftsman and builder, Mr. Joe Pol.

The Democrat-Star, 3/5/1915;

Little Miss Louise Pol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pol, celebrated her sixth birthday on Saturday with a party at the home of her parents. All kinds of games were played and refreshments served. (This would mean she was born in 1909.)

INTIMATE NOTES ON THE CLASS OF 1940

KERMIT FREDERIC

Kermitt has been at Pascagoula High School for six years, including two years of Junior Hi. He is a familiar figure in almost every activity, has played football since he was in the seventh grade, and is a letter-man of 1939. He was voted Friendliest Boy in a school-wide Who's Who Contest. His Senior year found him president of the class, one who had initiative and energy to make the graduating class the outstanding success it has been. Kermit is business manager of the Panther Pen, is a member of the Beta Club, and has taken part in several school plays this year. In a personal interview, he admitted that he is nineteen years old, is very fond of life, hates slackers, has a hobby of collecting beautiful girls (what does that mean), wants "to go to heaven on a mule." He can be heard giving this answer to almost any remark, "Let the hair go with the hide."

Frederic - Kermit Xavier Frederic, on Wednesday, February 12, 2003. Beloved husband of A. Yvonne Barry Frederic. Son of the late Solomon Hugo Frederic and Louise Champagne Frederic. Father of Craig Michael Frederic, Sr., Karen Beth Frederic and Keith Paul Frederic. Grandfather of Craig, Jr., Thomas, Matthew and Jeanne Frederic. Brother of Louis A. Frederic, Dr. Gerard J. Frederic, Madeleine F. Futrelle and the late Vernon H. Frederic and Evelyn England Stone. Age 82 years. A native of Pascagoula, MS., and a resident of New Orleans, LA for 47 years and Slidell, LA for the past 11 years. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral. A

Funeral Mass will be celebrated at Our Lady of The Rosary Catholic Church, 3368 Esplanade Ave., New Orleans, LA., on Saturday, February 15, 2003 at 11:00 AM. Visitation at the church beginning at 10:00 AM. Rev. Rodney P. Bourg, officiating. In lieu of flowers, donations to St. Luke Evangelist Catholic Church Bldg. Fund, 910 Cross Gates Blvd, Slidell, LA 70461, or to The American Cancer Society. Arrangements by Jacob Schoen and Son Funeral Home, 3827 Canal St. Times Picayune 02-14-2003

Notes for Robert Quinton Frederic:

Chronicle-Star, August 12, 1944;

Lt. Robert Frederic Awarded Air Medal For Part In D-Day Invasion

From a Ninth Air Force Carrier Base in the European Theatre of War comes the announcement that Lt. Robert Q. Frederic of Pascagoula has been awarded the coveted Air Medal for his part in the invasion of France.

Lieutenant Frederic is the pilot of a paratroop-hauling, glider-towing C-47, and flew in a formation of 900 planes and gliders of the Ninth Troop Carrier Command, which is a part of the Ninth Air Force and U. S. component of the Allied Expeditionary Air Force, and is under the command of Brig. Gen Paul L. Williams, leader of the airborne invasion flights of Africa, Sicily and Italy and the dropping of the first troops on the Cherbourg peninsula on "D-Day."

In telling some of his experiences, Lieutenant Frederic said "We took off very early on the eventful day of June 6, 1944, and soon assembled into formation, setting our course for the French coast. Everything went swell until we reached the French coast where we ran into bad weather and had to fly blind on instruments. As we broke out of this overcast, the Jerries had us in their sight and began firing at us, but no apparent damage was done and we continued on to the drop zone where we released the glider which we were towing and then hit the deck to fly at tree-top level, hedge hopping over both trees and roof-tops, here and there back towards the British coast. All around the drop zone we were subjected to heavy machine gun and anti-aircraft fire and the same was encountered as we flew back over the French coast. As we flew over the channel we saw some of our planes in the water and the allied navies all in unison ready to do their bit. We landed at our home base a bit on the jittery side and set about examining our plane just to see how much damage had been done. We soon discovered that the Jerries aren't nearly as good marksmen as they claim to be because we had only a few bullet holes here and there which were caused by small arms fire."

Local History & Genealogy Dept.

Lieutenant Frederic is a graduate from the Pascagoula High school and prior to his entry into the service was employed as a machinist by the F. D. Y. Machine Company, in Pascagoula.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Frederic, to whom the announcement of her son's prowess has been sent from the Ninth Command Headquarters in the European Theatre of War, resides on River road, in Pascagoula.

Chronicle-Star, March 02, 1951;

Robert Frederic Is Fatally Injured In Texas Crash

T/Sgt. Robert Q. Frederic, Pascagoula, was fatally injured Tuesday morning in an automobile collision in Wichita Falls, Tex., where he was stationed with the air force at Sheppard Field.

He was the son of Mrs. Mary Frederic, River Road, and husband of the former Miss Frances Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith, Pascagoula.

One Son Survives

Sgt. and Mrs. Frederic had one child, a two-year-old son, Robert Q. Jr. A member of an old and prominent family, he has many relatives and friends residing here.

Sgt. Frederic was transferred to Sheppard Field from Keesler in November, 1949. He was on his way to the field for an interview with the officer second in command in connection with receiving the captain's commission he had held in World War II when the accident occurred.

He had been scheduled to get the commission in about two weeks, members of his family were informed.

The crash happened in the middle of an intersection and Sgt. Frederic was thrown clear of his car, which veered into a telephone pole after the crash, onto the pavement and against the curb. He was rushed to a Wichita Falls hospital but died a few minutes after the accident.

His body was scheduled to arrive in Pascagoula Thursday night accompanied by a close friend, Sgt. S. T. Harkey, Sheppard Field.

On receiving news of the tragedy, a friend from Pascagoula, now stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., Sgt. Walley Cox and his wife, drove to Wichita Falls and brought Mrs. Frederic and the little boy to Pascagoula by automobile.

Funeral services will be conducted today at 3 p. m. from Fails and at 3:30 from the Christ Lutheran church with the Rev. Frederick Zuker, pastor, officiating. Interment will be in Machpelah cemetery.

There will be full military rites with personnel from Keesler in charge and serving as honorary pall bearers. Active pall bearers are Louis Frederic, Robert Sims, Jack Witchen, Sgt. Harkey, Sgt. Walley Cox and Charles Oliver.

Sgt. Frederic attended Pascagoula high school but entered the service in April, 1942, before his graduation and received his diploma after the war was over.

Before entering the service he was attending flying school at the airport and was working for a commercial license.

He advanced to the rank of captain in the air corps and held the Distinguished Flying Cross with two oak leaf clusters. He led his squadron to Europe, by way of South America and Africa, when they were sent overseas and also led the squadron home. He took part in the invasions of Normandy and Southern France.

While stationed in Wichita Falls, he has attended college at night.

Sgt. Frederic was 29 years old. He and his wife were married January 26, 1947.

He enlisted in the air force three years ago. Prior to that he and his two brothers operated the Pascagoula Machine Shop.

He was a member of the 3770th training squad at Sheppard Field and was instructor and tactical training commander.

He is survived also by two brothers, Hermes A. and Pol M. Frederic, and three sisters, Mesdames Douglas Clark, Laverne Howard and W. A. Reynolds, all of Pascagoula.

Obituary, Mississippi-Press;

Hermes F. Gautier Dies At 74

Hermes Fredric Gautier, 74, long time political and civic leader, died at his home at 629 Columbus Drive Saturday night.

Funeral service were held today from the home at 1:45 p.m. and from Our Lady of Victories Catholic Church at 2 p.m. Burial was in Machpelah Cemetery.

Mr. Gautier known as Mr. Jackson County, served for 24 years on the Board of Supervisors, four years in the House of Representatives and four years in the Senate of the Mississippi Legislature.

He is a past president of the Pascagoula Chamber of Commerce, Coast Council of Chambers of Commerce, First Federal Savings & Loan Association of Pascagoula - Moss Point, Gulf Marine Fisheries Commission and Gulf Coast Warehouse Corp. Biloxi.

Most of his life he was engaged in the ice manufacturing business. He at one time operated plants in Pascagoula, Gulfport and Biloxi. He was honored by both Delta States Ice Association and National Ice Association for services and contributions to the industry.

At the time of his death he was president of the Pascagoula Ice and Freezer Co. Inc. and a director of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, the Merchants and Marine Bank and the Mississippi Export Railroad.

During World War II Mr. Gautier was chairman of the county Selective Service Board. He was the first king of the Gulf Coast Carnival Association.

Legislation secured by him enabled Jackson County to obtain deep water channels and to build the Bayou Casotte Industrial Area. In 1939 he was instrumental in locating Ingalls Shipbuilding here.

Tom Thornhill, president of First Federal, said, "With the passing of Hermes Gautier I have lost one of my closest and best friends.

"Hermes served as a guiding light to all of us at First Federal. In my opinion he did more for Jackson County than any man. He wasn't for Hermes. He was for the people - for the betterment of Jackson County."

Edward A. Khayat, president of the Board of Supervisors, said "His life has been a challenge. His vision, courage and business acumen coupled with a great sense of humor, has given us all incentive to be builders for Jackson County.

"His leadership in bringing Ingalls Shipyard will be remembered. Also, Hermes introduced legislation for deepening channels of Pascagoula River. Working side by side with the late Gov. Fielding Wright, he secured state matching funds when federal funds were not available. This one effort was a major achievement and was the beginning of our tremendous port program."

He is survived by two sons, Hermes Quinn and John D., both of Pascagoula; one brother, James D. of Moss Point; five sisters, Mrs. P. T. Vaught of Gautier, Mrs. George Hague of Pascagoula, Mrs. H. B. Clark of Gautier, Miss Josie Gautier of Gautier and Mrs. C. B. Clark of Jackson. There are 17 grandchildren.

Notes for Hermes Quin Gautier:
Obituary-

Hermes Quin Gautier Sr., 83, of Pascagoula, Miss., died peacefully Saturday, January 25, 2003 at home with his family. Born January 20, 1920, Mr. Gautier was a lifelong resident of Pascagoula. He served as a page in Washington, D.C. under Sen. William Colmer, attended Georgia Military College and graduated from Pascagoula High School. He received his bachelor of science degree from Tulane University, where he was a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity and then attended Harvard University for post graduate business administration. He is a veteran of World War II, serving as a lieutenant in the U.S. Navy as a supply officer in the Atlantic.

He was known as "The Ice Man" as he managed ice plants in Gulfport, Biloxi and then owned the Pascagoula Ice and Freezer Corp. until his retirement. He received many honors, when as president of the National Ice Association he brought relief to the Gulf Coast after Hurricanes Camille and Frederic. An armchair historian himself, he received awards for historic preservation for his home in Pascagoula and his ancestral home, the Old Place in Gautier. As an avid sailor, Quin was a founding member of two yacht clubs in Pascagoula. He was a life member of the Pascagoula Rotary Club and a founding member of the Maskers Carnival Crew. As father of nine children and 17 grandchildren, he has been a big supporter of Our Lady of Victories and Sacred Heart Catholic Schools (now called Resurrection) and Churches, Pine Burr Council of Boy Scouts, and numerous sports teams, colleges, charities and arts organizations.

He was preceded in death by his parents, the Hon. Hermes Frederic Gautier and "Hattie" Quinn Gautier and three siblings who died in infancy. From 1984 until her death in 1999, he was the faithful and loving caretaker of his beloved wife, Mimi (Marie Aimee Warren), whom he married in 1944. Since her death he has been an invalid himself. He leaves behind a gentle caretaker, Mrs. Eva Woods Magee who has worked for the Gautier family since 1956. "Papa Quin" departs this earth from his nine children, their spouses, his 17 grandchildren, their spouses and 6 step-great-grandchildren with the following advice: "You know where Mother and I are going and you know how to get there!" He will always be remembered as a gentleman of integrity, charity and great humor.

Mr. Gautier is survived by one brother, of Gautier, Miss., nine children and their spouses; 17 grandchildren and their spouses; and many other loving nieces, nephews, cousins and devoted friends. Visitation is at his home in Pascagoula, MS, on Tuesday, Jan. 28, 2003, from 5-8 p.m. with the Rosary at 6:30 p.m. Gospel choral music will follow. A funeral mass will be held Wednesday, Jan. 29, 2003, at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Victory Church on Magnolia Street in Pascagoula, MS. Pallbearers will be his grandsons. Interment will immediately follow at Greenwood Cemetery on Buena Vista Street in Pascagoula, MS, with military honors. Arrangements by O'Bryant-O'Keefe Funeral Home of Pascagoula and Gautier, MS.
